THE McNEILL EPISODE

Sensation Has Strong Bearing on Election Contest for District Judgeship.

COTTON-PORTER ENGAGEMENT.

Spokane Business Man Finds Runaway Wife in Ogden—Wedding—Briefs and Personal.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 25.—The general topic of discussion all day yesterday and today was the arrest of C. D. McNeill Monday night on the charge of extortion, preferred by Will Howell, and opinions vary as to the outcome of the affair. It is generally conceded that a charge of extortion cannot be proven by Howell against McNeill. While McNeill may have had a conversation with Howell on the matter of receiving $400 for a certain affidavit and for him to get out of the city, he did not receive the check that was filled out but not signed, neither did he after signing the prepared affidavit, swear to it, or deliver the paper to anyone, but put it in his pocket after signing it and refused to give it up until it was taken from his pocket by the officers when he was searched. George McCormick, the notary public who was sent for by Howell, admits that McNeill did not swear to the affidavit. McNeill also states that he did not know its full contents, as he claims that only part of it was read to him before he signed it.

Joseph Lowther, whom McNeill said, he had seen Saturday night, said that he did not tell McNeill that Howell wanted to see him, but that he had seen McNeill at the office of Howell, and that he had seen him there. He says that he has seen Mr. Daniel Hamer over 20 affidavits from men that they received money to vote for J. A. Howell for district judge. These affidavits were in the district court next month.

The case of Daniel Hamer against J. A. Howell, in which Hamer seeks to have the election of Howell to the office of district judge declared void, on the ground that it was secured by bribery and fraud, and to have the election of Judge H. H. Rolapp declared, is to come on for hearing Feb. 6 before Judge Deputy County Clerk John V. Bluth, secretary of the committee, is also summoned. County Clerk David Matson, District Attorney George Halverson, Sheriff Henry Rhodes, Joseph Southwick, James Southwick, William Holmes, Henry Stallings, H. A. Stallings, Alma Peterson, Adam Peterson and J. Harvey Brown, mostly residents of Ogden valley, have also been summoned to testify.

RUNAWAY WIFE FOUND HERE.
George Davis a young business man of Des Moines, Washington, was in Ogden yesterday where he came to effect a reconciliation between himself and his wife who had run away from home because, as she alleges, of improper treatment of her husband. The young wife was located in a local rooming house, having only just arrived in town. The police found her and through their efforts the young woman consented to return with her husband to their home.

One of the first things of importance in living a simple life is in eating a simple diet. This does not mean that you must eat the coarsest food and that which is unpalatable to you; but, for you to eat the very best you can get for the least money, necessities. First among these is good bread and butter. Poor indeed is the family which cannot afford the best of this! It is not extravagance to pay an extra price for having extra in quality, as it makes you eat more bread. People do not eat butter alone, and when they are eating good bread and butter, they will not eat so much of other food as those who have more expensive. There is only one best sold in this market and that is Hazel-nut Brand Butter. Your grocer can get it for you.

Board of Education Meeting—Strike Conference Next Sunday.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Jan. 23.—The board of education at its meeting Friday night arranged for a corps of examiners to visit the departments of the city schools outside of those directly interested in the classes. It is hoped that the new arrangement will avoid a recurrence of the difficulty experienced at the close of the school last year.

The board by a strictly party vote re-elected Lorenzo Benson as janitor at the Woodruff school. It will be remembered that Benson was made janitor by the old board at the beginning of the school year, and was elected a member of the present board at the election in December, defeating two of the members of the old board, who got away by summarily removing him from the janitorship at their last meeting. Benson will now likely retain the place to the end of the school year.

Ward conferences were held yesterday in the Third and Fourth Logan wards.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Demise of Mrs. Eunice Harmon and Wm. Warren—Educational Lecture.

Price, Carbon Co., Jan. 21.—Today Mrs. Eunice Childster Harmon passed from this earth to her reward in the great beyond. She has been very feeble for some time, but it was not thought she would go so soon.

Mrs. Harmon was born at Florence, O., Feb. 18, 1852. She came to Utah with a young girl, and married early in life and spent the first few years of wedded life in Utah country. Later she moved to Dixie, where she reared her children that married and have done her credit. She was devoted to her religion and her children follow after her.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.

George Crandall and Loyal J. Neal Pay Nature's Debt.

Special Correspondence.

Peoa, Summit Co., Jan. 21.—We have had about one-fourth the usual fall of snow; the outlook for the next season's water supply is not very favorable so far.

Within the last three weeks there have been two deaths here, that of George Crandall, 12 years of age, and Loyal J. Neal, 19 years of age.

Elders Arthur M. Marchant and Herbert A. Lyons have returned from the mission field and were joyously welcomed by relatives and friends. Elder Marchant labored in West Virginia and Elder Lyons in Georgia.

Mrs. J. V. Isakson, an old and respected lady of this town, has been seriously sick during the past three weeks, but is very much better at this writing. George Wardell, a resident here for many years, was taken sick on Thursday last and has been confined to his bed since then.

The new warehouse is so far completed as to allow the holding of meetings in it. Work will be pushed and it is expected that the building will be completed in the near future.

Mrs. Lydia E. Walker, president of the Peoa Relief society, has been sick for the past three weeks; the lady is now able to be up and is recovering slowly but surely.

The "News" is a welcome visitor to a large number of homes in Peoa.

many of the younger children from school during the winter.

We have had hardly any winter weather to speak of as yet. It is now mild enough for April, with very little snow.

The ward is preparing for a two days' picnic and general outing to be held in the meetinghouse Feb. 1-2, the occasion being the retirement of Bishop Thomas Atkins, who has served us so well and faithfully for nearly a quarter of a century. A great deal of interest is being manifested as to who will be appointed to succeed Bishop Atkins, but at the present time this cannot even be guessed by the general public.

RIGBY, IDAHO.

HAPPY WEDDING BELLS.

Big Rabbit Drive and Thousands Slain—Death of Young Girl.

Special Correspondence.

Rigby, Fremont Co., Idaho, Jan. 22.—Yesterday we had a rabbit drive on the sage plains south of Rigby. Citizens from north, south, east and west, formed lines, gradually diminishing the size of the circle, until a number of rabbits, variously estimated at from 4,000 to 10,000, were corralled and slain without mercy. Ciel as this method may appear, the rapid increase of the rodents makes annual raids of this kind a necessity; and even then, farmers on the outskirts are losers of large quantities of grain and other vegetation. A dance was given to the hunters and others at the Opera hall in the evening.

On Friday evening, a ball was given at the Opera hall, the proceeds to be used to help pay for the piano at the Hicks' academy.

WEDDING BELLS.

She was sick but a short time, dying of pneumonia. Consoling remarks were made at the funeral by Elders Charles Jensen of Grand, Geo. E. Hill, Jr., and Joseph Call of Rigby, and a host of friends followed her remains to their resting place.
